

Do your brakes squeal?

It might be your brake pads!

[Useful tips on brake pads]

Brake pads are consumable items which need regular checkups and replacement. If worn brake pads are not replaced, they will eventually damage the brake discs. Brake discs are expensive, so it would be best to change the brake pads at an appropriate timing to avoid unnecessary expenses. Above all, the brakes are a fundamental part of your car which is connected directly to your safety. Therefore, if you hear any abnormal noise, or feel something unusual, consult a Suzuki dealer for advice.
